

Costanoa Packing Tips

For all guests, the following may be useful and enjoyable to bring along:

- Binoculars for viewing wildlife
- Camera
- Sunscreen and sunglasses
- Raincoat and umbrella
- Flashlights
- Layered clothing
- Comfortable shoes to wear hiking or biking
- Long pants
- Heeled-boots and gloves if you're thinking about going horseback riding
- Slippers or flip-flops
- Mountain bikes and locks
- Cooking utensils, charcoal, and lighter fluid if you are thinking about barbecuing
- Great books (Costanoa does not have a television)

Lodge, Cabin, and Cypress Bungalow guests may also want to include:

- Bathing suit to wear in our outdoor hot tub, and indoor sauna

Outer Pine and Pine Village Tent Bungalows may also want to include:

- Bathing suit to wear in the dry sauna
- Extra blankets for chilly nights
- Cooler to store perishables (ice is available at the General Store for a small fee)

Family Bungalow guests may also want to include:

- Sleeping bags, pillows, and blankets, as bedding is not provided for the twin beds.
- Towels
- Alarm clock (if necessary)

Many of the items above are also available for purchase in our General Store.
